

Local Authorities

Requirements for Covert Operations

- Protection Disused Buildings or Sites (Illegal Entry)
- Prevention of Fly Tipping
- Anti-Social Behaviour
- Enforcement of Environmental Health Regulations
- Licencing Act 2003 (Underage Sales)

There are numerous reasons for Local Authorities to conduct Covert Operations in the Prevention of Criminal Activity and to Provide a Public Health, Safety and Enforcement role.

To be proficient, agents and employees of the Local Authority require essential covert operational training and development, that develops the relevant theory and practical skills which will allow them to build a portfolio of evidence

- Events, Demonstrations and Protests
- Violations of Building and Planning Regulations
- Child Protection Services
- Vulnerable Adults (Homeless, Victims of Violence)
- Licencing Enforcement

Theory and Practical Skills

- Covert Imagery
- Covert Investigation Skills
- Operational Planning
- Risk and Threat Mitigation